ARCH'S ORGANISATIONAL MANAGEMENT MATTERS MANUAL

Available Now

The Organisational Management Matters Manual complies with the latest publications of the National Community Housing Standards, NSW Co-operative Operational Guidelines and the NSW Co-operatives Act 1992.

The Organisational Management Matters Manual contains organisational and administrative information crucial to your co-operative operations.

The Organisational Management Matters Manual contains many of the sample forms and model policies your co-op will need in all areas of managing its legal and administrative obligations and accountabilities.

The Organisational Management Matters Manual complements the ARCH training program

The Organisational Management Matters Manual is must for all existing and developing housing co-operatives.

Researched and written by Gael Kennedy and Tim Childs with the assistance of ARCH staff and input from members of individual housing co-ops.

The Organisational Management Matters Manual is now available for $70.00 (plus $6 for postage and handling).
